Residential Burglary Suspect Arrested

CARLSBAD, Calif.—On August 29, at 3:16 P.M., the City of Carlsbad Police Department received a call of a suspicious subject looking in back yards and houses in the 4000 block of Crescent Point in Carlsbad, CA.

Investigating officers observed a male subject inside a house rifling through the owner's belongings. A perimeter around the house was established and when officers entered the residence to search for the subject he jumped out a second story window in an attempt to flee.

With the assistance of a police canine, 39 year-old Vista resident, Kenneth Allen Lowary was taken into custody and arrested for residential burglary, and resisting arrest.

Lowary is currently being treated for his injuries and will be booked into the Vista Jail.
